Section Two. Findings

A. On April 30, 2013, by Resolution No. CAP-20-13, as amended, the Navajo Nation Council approved the creation of the Navajo Transitional Energy Company, LLC ("NTEC") for the primary purpose of purchasing the Navajo Mine from BHP Billiton New Mexico Coal Company.

B. In order for the Navajo Nation to obtain the performance and reclamation bonds (the "Bonds") required to complete the transactions for the purchase of the Navajo Mine by NTEC and comply with federal law, the Navajo Nation Council pursuant to Resolution No. CD-60-13 (Dec. 27, 2013) approved by a 2/3 majority vote a limited waiver of the Nation’s sovereign immunity and the execution of General Indemnity Agreements with the Zurich American Insurance Company ("Zurich") and Arch Insurance Company. Such limited waiver of sovereign immunity provided for binding arbitration and an alternative state court forum for enforcement of binding arbitration and any ancillary proceedings, including for exigent and emergency equitable relief, such forum to be the First Judicial District Court of the State of New Mexico, or if the First Judicial District Court lacked proper jurisdiction or was otherwise unavailable to the Parties, then in Superior Court, State of Arizona. Resolution No. CD-60-13 was signed into law by President Ben Shelly on December 27, 2014.

C. Resolution No. CAP-13-15 signed into law on May 4, 2015 amended Resolution No. CD-60-13 to extend the same limited waiver of sovereign immunity for binding arbitration and an alternative state court forum for enforcement of binding arbitration and any ancillary proceedings, and the same form of General Indemnity Agreement, as were approved pursuant to Resolution No. CD-60-13 for Zurich, additionally Approved Sureties. Resolution CAP-13-15 is attached as Exhibit 1.
D. The Navajo Nation Sovereign Immunity Act, 1 N.N.C. §554 (D) states: “... Nor does any liability assumed by the Navajo Nation pursuant to this Act extend to any party or parties as third party beneficiary or otherwise, other than the party or parties whom such liability is expressly assumed, an only to the extent, circumstances and conditions specified thereby."

E. Resolutions CD-60-13 and CAP-13-15 are specifically limited to the NTEC transactions involving the purchase of the Navajo Mine. There is no waiver of Navajo Nation sovereign immunity for general indemnity agreement involving any parties or transactions not specifically identified in CD-10-13 and CAP-13-15.

Section Three. Restating that CD-60-13 and CAP-13-15 are limited to the specific transactions listed in those resolutions

The Navajo Nation Council hereby restates that the limited waiver of sovereign immunity and the general indemnity agreements and sureties approved in Resolution CAP-13-15 apply only to the NTEC transactions, specifically identified in CAP-13-15 and CD-60-13, involving the purchase of the Navajo Mine and do not extend to any subsequent purchase or transactions of NTEC.
