§ 614. Grievance Procedure for Navajo Nation Government Employees

A. Any employee of the Navajo Nation Executive or Legislative Branch or a non-Local Governance Act Certified Chapter, or applicant for employment with the Navajo Nation Executive or Legislative Branch or non-Local Governance Act Certified Chapter, who alleges a violation of this Act shall file a grievance as provided by the Navajo Nation Personnel Policies Manual. The hearing officer may award the employee or applicant any remedy authorized by Section 612(A) of this Act.

B. Any employee of the Navajo Nation Judicial Branch or an applicant for employment with the Navajo Nation Judicial Branch who alleges a violation of the Act shall file a grievance as provided by the Judicial Branch Employee Policies & Procedures. The hearing board may award the employee or applicant any remedy authorized by Section 612(A) of this Act.

C. Any party to the grievance may appeal a final decision of the hearing officer or hearing board to the Navajo Nation Supreme Court within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the decision. The employee or applicant shall file a notice of appeal with the Navajo Nation Supreme Court and the hearing officer or hearing board.

D. Transcripts and record for appeals.

1. If considered necessary, the party appealing a decision shall file a transcript of the proceeding with the Navajo Nation Supreme Court within thirty (30) calendar days from the filing of the notice of appeal.
2. If a transcript is considered unnecessary, within ten (10) calendar days of the filing of the notice of appeal, the party appealing a decision shall give notice to the Navajo Nation Supreme Court and the appellee that the appellant will not file a transcript.

3. If the appellant fails to file a transcript or notice that the appellant will not file a transcript within the required time, the Navajo Nation Supreme Court shall dismiss the appeal.

4. The hearing officer or hearing board shall submit the record of the proceeding within ten (10) calendar days of the filing of the notice of appeal. Failure of the hearing officer or hearing board to file the record within that time period shall not be grounds for dismissal of the appeal.

E. The Navajo Nation Supreme Court shall review and decide the appeal within thirty (30) days of the filing of the transcript or the notice that appellant will not file a transcript. If a decision within that time is not feasible, at the request of a party or by its own order, the Navajo Nation Supreme Court may extend that time up to sixty (60) days. The Navajo Nation Supreme Court shall create expedited rules of appellate procedure to decide the appeal within the required time period.

F. Remedies; enforcement of awards.

1. If the employee or applicant prevails on his or her grievance, and the Navajo Nation program does not appeal the decision, the program and Navajo Nation Controller shall pay the monetary remedies awarded within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the final decision of the hearing officer or board.

2. If the hearing officer or board directs reinstatement of the employee to his or her position or directs the hiring of the applicant for employment, and the Navajo Nation program does not appeal the decision, the program shall initiate the processing of all documentation necessary to reinstate the employee or hire the applicant within ten (10) calendar days of the decision.

3. The filing of an appeal by the Navajo Nation program under Subsection (C) shall automatically stay the payment of monetary remedies or the remedies of reinstatement or hire pending the decision by the Navajo Nation Supreme Court.
However, any monetary remedy, such as back-pay, will continue to accrue until the decision is issued, unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court. If the employee or applicant prevails on appeal, the Navajo Nation program will fulfill the award within the time periods set out in Subsections (1) and (2), calculated from the date of receipt of the Navajo Nation Supreme Court’s decision.

4. If the Navajo Nation program fails to perform its obligations within the time periods in Subsections (1) through (3), the employee or applicant may file an action under Section 554(G) of the Navajo Sovereign Immunity Act to enforce the award. If the employee or applicant prevails in that action, he or she may receive the original award of the hearing officer or board and any additional relief authorized by 1 N.N.C. § 554(G)(1).

G. The remedies set forth in this Section are the exclusive remedies for employees of or applicants for employment with the Navajo Nation Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Branches and non-Local Governance Certified Chapters for violations of the Act. ONLR and the Commission shall have no jurisdiction over alleged violations of the Act by the Navajo Nation Executive, Legislative or Judicial Branch or non-Local Governance Certified Chapters.
