Navajo Nation Council honors the life of former Council Delegate and Chapter President Andy R. Ayze

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: September 26, 2022

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. — Hon. Speaker Seth Damon and the 24th Navajo Nation Council offer their condolences to the family and friends of Andy R. Ayze, former Council Delegate and Chinle Chapter President who passed away peacefully on Thursday at the age of 73 years old.

“On behalf of the 24th Navajo Nation Council, we offer our condolences and prayers for the family, friends, and loved ones of Mr. Ayze, who held onto his passion for public service which certainly earned him the respect of his community,” said Speaker Damon (Bááhaalí, Chichiltah, Manuelito, Red Rock, Rock Springs, Tséyatoh). “Through his steadfast leadership, Mr. Ayze was successful in advocating for the betterment of his community and the numerous students he helped.”

Mr. Andy R. Ayze was born on January 9, 1949, in Chinle, Ariz.; and was Kinyaa’áanii (Towering House clan) and born for Tódich’ii’nii (Bitter Water clan). He would later serve as a Chinle Chapter President for three (3) terms and was elected as a Navajo Nation Council Delegate for four (4) terms.

“Hon. Andy R. Ayze was a loving father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and beloved husband who dedicated himself to serve his community. All who knew him revered the leadership and devotion he exemplified,” said Hon. Council Delegate Kee Allen Begay, Jr (Tachee/Blue Gap, Many Farms, Nazlini, Tselani/Cottonwood, Low Mountain). “From his continued advocacy, Mr. Ayze was able to play an important and active role in overseeing various organizations, committees, and boards which proved to make real change.”

He is survived by his beloved wife Lucy E. Ayze and his children: Gloria Lee, Steven Ayze, Andrea Ayze, Audraelle Ayze, Audralynn Ayze, Valerie Ayze, Victoria Barber, and Ryan Ayze. Additionally, Mr. Ayze is survived by 24 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

During his time in public service, Mr. Ayze served as a Comprehensive Health Care Representative, Dineh Cooperatives, Inc. Board Member, Chairman of the Navajo Nation
