NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL
- WINTER SESSION DAILY COLORS -

MONDAY 01/23	TUESDAY 01/24	WEDNESDAY 01/25	THURSDAY 01/26	FRIDAY 01/27
HUMAN TRAFFICKING MONTH	AMBER ALERT MONTH	POVERTY AWARENESS MONTH	MOTHER EARTH MONTH	LIVESTOCK AWARENESS MONTH
Wear Dark Blue to protect and empower survivors, persecute traffickers, and bring an end to all forms of human trafficking in our nation and world.	Wear Yellow to recognize the early warning system that notifies the public when a child has been abducted and in remembrance of 9-year-old Amber Hagerman.	Wear White to acknowledge the poverty that has impacted communities in the United States and on the Navajo Nation.	Wear Green to spread awareness about environmental issues that have been affecting our planet due to climate change.	Wear Orange to symbolize awareness on animal cruelty prevention and protection. Orange is known as the "animal guardian color."
