MISSION

The Judicial Branch will provide stability in the Navajo Nation government by providing court, peacemaking, and probation and parole services, to adjudicate cases, resolve disputes, rehabilitate individuals and families, restore harmony, educate the public, agencies, services and other governments in Diné bi beenahaz' áanii, and protect persons and property pursuant to Navajo Nation laws, customs, traditions, and applicable federal laws. Pursuant to Diné bi beenahaz' áanii, the Judicial Branch will carefully develop a justice system that fully embodies the traditional values and processes of the Navajo People.

STRATEGIC GOALS

- One:* As the Navajo Nation court, peacemaking, and probation and parole system, we will ensure the continued provision of efficient, fair, and respectful judicial services.
- Two:* We will ensure access to the judicial system by the public.
- Three:* We will address the infrastructure needed to maximize partnerships across branches, agencies, and communities.
- Four:* We will develop a judicial system in accordance with Diné bi beenahaz' áanii that fully incorporates Navajo values and processes.

IV. Message from the Chief Justice

Fiscal Year 2023 Third Quarterly Message Chief Justice JoAnn Jayne (Alááji Hashkééji Nahat'á)

Yá'át'ééh, Shí Diné Doo Shíghéí, Ado Nihíí Nahata'jii Nataani Honorable 25th Navajo Nation Council Delegates, Doo Alááji Hózhóóji Nahat'á Dájiz dah'yígí Dr. Buu Nygren, Doo Richelle Montoya Akáádo Dájiz dah'yígí, Doo Crystalyne Curley, Alááji Nahata'jii Nataani Dájizdah'yígí, Doo distinguished guests. I respectfully present you the Hashkééji Nahat'á (Judicial Branch) Third Quarterly Report for Fiscal Year 2023: T'ááchil (April), Growth of Early Plant Life; T'áátsóh (May), Big Leaves; Ya'iishjááshchilí (June), Planting of Early Crops.

The Hashkééji Nahat'á Branch is deeply committed to maintaining judicial independence and access to justice to the communities we all serve. Throughout the pandemic, the Hashkééji Nahat'á Branch continuously provided services in person and through electronic means. Crisis management demonstrated areas to improve services to the public but also demonstrated heroes in our courts and programs, many who faced their own personal tragedies and struggles but still ensured access to justice through their work. With the ending of the emergency declarations, all employees are required to be at their respective worksites. We continue to evaluate ourselves during the pandemic and how to improve services moving forward.

During this quarter, the Hashkééji Nahat'á Branch met continuously with Navajo Nation, international, and state justice partners. Multiple courts and programs hosted Justice Days within their venues to bring our services out into the communities we serve. Educating and collaborating with these various justice partners leads to productive discussions and development of services. Analyzing how our courts and programs function and affect our justice partners as well as how our justice partners affect us continues to improve our systems that intersect. Reassessing and modernizing our buildings became apparent during the pandemic. Continuing to prioritize how the communities we serve access justice is fundamental to this process. Long term planning that reflects our communities' unique needs requires time and dedication to develop spending plans that uphold fiscal responsibility as well as timely expenditure of funds entrusted to us. The Hashkééji Nahat'á Branch recognizes that fully developed spending plans for infrastructure will take time and effort that has limitations due to lack of staffing in key areas of infrastructure development. It is our staff's dedication to see these projects come to fruition that moves us forward and the guiding principle of nahat'á that will bring about responsible decisions.

As judicial selection stalled during the pandemic, we have redoubled our efforts to recruit exceptional jurists. It is with great hope, the Hashkééji Nahat'á Branch will continue its work with the Executive and Legislative Branches to bring in highly trained legal professionals. Jurists provide a public service which is important to quality of life to our people. Reinvigorating the judicial selection process and providing essential support for jurists will reflect the expectation and recognition of the professional standards we have set. This report is prepared and highlighted by each of the 18 units within the Hashkééji Nahat'á Branch – District Courts, Supreme Court, Peacemaking Program, and Probation and Parole Services – for our people to read and learn about some of our day-to-day efforts. Each unit chose which information they wanted to share with you.

We are happy to share it with our Diné, our relatives, the Legislative and Executive branches, partners, and colleagues. ‘Ahéhee’

Respectfully,
JoAnn B. Jayne,
Chief Justice of the Navajo Nation

V. Navajo Nation Peacemaking Program

A. PEACEMAKING PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

The goal of Peacemaking is to find justice and restore participants to harmonious, productive membership in their families and communities. Peacemaking is not Anglo-style mediation or arbitration. The process engages people facing disharmony by talking it out, finding solutions to their problems, and removing chaos from their lives. Peacemaking is governed by a Plan of Operations that was adopted in 2012. The first value in the plan is that these services be available to Diné of all denominations. Peacemaking practices are relevant to Diné of all religious beliefs because they are deeply rooted in Navajo culture.

1. Accomplishment of objectives set the previous quarter.

Peacemaking Program delivered direct services and meeting or exceeding our performance goals during third quarter. Events this quarter have highlighted the critical importance of preserving and utilizing traditional, culturally relevant methods in conflict resolution, policy formation, and cultural events. Discussions with Branches of government and local communities are focusing on Peacemaking as primary forum of dispute resolution that is understood and used by the Diné; this engagement expands our broader responsibilities of providing services exemplified through Diné Bi Beenahaz'aanii to other agencies and departments.

Acting Program Coordinator has been active in the Executive Management Team meetings, JB Annual Conference planning, Court Administrators/Program Managers meeting, and providing traditional guidance to Judicial Districts/Programs on using the steps identified for traditional ceremonies using ARPA funding.

a. Use community-based Peacemakers.

Outreach to community-based Peacemakers is ongoing with continued recruitment efforts by assisting interested individuals to pursue peacemaking resolutions from their respective chapters. Two Peacemaking Program (PMP) Offices completed Peacemakers Orientation and Training resulting in two Peacemakers becoming certified. Six PMP Offices completed Day One of Day Two Peacemakers Orientation and Training. Five PMP Offices have scheduled Day One and Day Two of the Peacemakers Orientation and Training.

b. Maintain our professionalism.

Traditional Program Specialists do their own mentoring by provide in-house trainings on difficult topics encountered through Life Value Engagements or traditional Peacemaking sessions. We continue to focus discussions on how Navajo traditional values can be implemented to reduce conflict and seek Hozho. Peacemaking Program Staff attended two sessions of training on Diné Fundamental Law.

c. Advance our mission.

Our core work is: conducting Peacemaking Sessions; Individual/Group Life Value Engagements; Diné Family Group Conferencing and other traditional problem-solving that require some traditional knowledge; providing traditional research for various issues facing Navajo Nation and/or when asked for guidance; providing presentations in preserving Diné Way of Life teachings and our language as Primary based on Dine Fundamental Law; and providing presentations in a variety of traditional topics for youth and adults and in workplace.

2. Peacemaking Role in Navajo Government.

Acting Program Coordinator Dempsey J. Harvey attended multiple external agencies and departments meetings for establishing and/or interest in Peacemaking Program, such as: Tribal Nation of British Columbia; Mescalero, New Mexico Childrens Inc; University of Scranton; and Utah States Courts. A training on Peacemaking Program and Mock-Peacemaking Session was conducted for Mescalero Tribal Court. Provided traditional guidance in reform of the grazing permit at the Navajo Nation Council Resources and Development Committee Meeting. Continuously, conducting research and approaching resources for traditional trainings for program staff. The Acting Program Coordinator voluntarily stepped down as Vice-Chair for Diné Action Plan Advisory Board; however, Peacemaking Program will continue to participate in meetings.

VI. Navajo Nation Probation Services

1. ACCOMPLISHMENT OF OBJECTIVES:

The FY 2024 budget is currently in negotiations. Once they have come to an agreement PPS will amend the budget accordingly to submit the finalized packet. Therefore, the first goal is partially met.

The 2023 Train the Trainer was a successful one-week training at the Sandra Day O'Connor Court building in Phoenix, Arizona. Chief Probation Officer Charles Flanagan offered to have this year's training at their location meeting room. Navajo Nation Probation staff were welcomed by Chief Flanagan and staff, including the Honorable Judge Diane Humetewa and the Honorable Chief Judge G. Murray Snow, District of Arizona. Both Judges welcomed the staff and shared inspiring and encouraging words, which was appreciated by Probation staff. Staff also toured the Court building, their offices and one of the courtrooms where they were invited to witness the swearing in of a new Probation Officer assigned to the Flagstaff office. It was an honor to witness a new probation officer sworn in. It was a fascinating experience for the entire probation staff. The training was outstanding. There was valuable information-sharing presented by probation officers and staff. Presentations were related to everyday essential duty and responsibilities that includes case management, data collection, networking/collaboration, pretrial services, research, teamwork, interviews & investigations, indigency requirements, children's cases, consent decrees and diversions. The topics were generated using the department training curriculum. The annual train the trainer benefits the overall PSS staff. Training and information sharing from district to district referring to situations occurring withing Navajo Probation helps to collaborate, assist one another in terms of recommendations and suggestions while referring to statutory requirements, rules, procedures, and policies. Staff were focused, engaged, and shared with colleagues their experiences, suggestions, and recommendations. It was encouraging to witness the teamwork environment. Staff expressed gratitude and appreciation towards the coordination and location. The goal and intent of the training was achieved and accomplished.

Chief Probation Officer accomplished another goal by coordinating two in-house training sessions for probation officers from Window Rock, Chinle and Kayenta. Training sessions were held for quarterly reports. There are a few probation officers who need additional help to understand the purpose and concept of a quarterly narrative report. The first training was held in Chinle with 4 probation officers. That training was accomplished and feedback by the officers understanding was positive. The second in-house training was held in Tuba City. The outcome of that training was also positive and achieved. There were 4 probation officers in attendance along with their Senior Supervisor. The one-on-one approach was to provide visual presentations. That approach seems to work and received more conversation among the officers during the training.

The next goal was partially achieved. Chief Probation was only able to travel to three on-site districts - Tuba City, Kayenta and Chinle. Chief Probation Officer was able to walk through the districts to ensure cases were resituated, office environment is reinstated, client report-ins were resumed in person and local resources have access to contact probation staff. She also ensured PPEs were supplied, along with janitorial supplies and office supplies. She was able to talk with staff and hear any concerns and or feedback with respect to returning to the office. The response to returning to the office is appreciated because staff expressed it was difficult to work from home with family distractions and privacy concerns. In the next quarter, Chief Probation Officer will resume district visits to the central and eastern region districts. The in-person district visits help her understand how the districts are situated and to sit down with staff knowing that she is present, if any questions or concerns arise.

The Closure Form for probation officers to use was finalized and is pending legal review. Upon review and acceptance, PPS will be able to coordinate a staff meeting to implement the revised uniform closure form. The revision will alleviate the different custom closure forms due to preference by the Courts. It is imperative that probation services utilize a uniform form because it is easier for the department to use one form to close a probation case that reflects the case management and Just Ware systems.

2. OTHER SIGNIFICANT ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

In this quarter, Chief Probation Officer conducted seven (7) PPS Round Table meetings with the PPS management team. The PPS Round Table is an essential bi-weekly meeting to ensure all aspects of the department are discussed and considered. Main points of the meetings are budgets, department expenditures, plans for the departments in terms of building issues, supplies, and other means to ensure the department operations are adequately functioning. Other issues include training and district announcements. Report is also provided by the Office Technicians and Senior Probation Officers on their assigned regional districts. Also included in the meeting discussion are department projects and developments.

Leadership in terms of leading a department involves day-to-day tasks that pertain to unexpected issues that arise and finding solutions to ensure operations continue. Personnel issues do arise that require unexpected meetings, discussions, and finding solutions. Being summoned to different internal meetings for decisions, suggestions and recommendations do occur. Management meetings, committee meetings, and outside agency requests and working relationships occur from day to day. Chief Probation makes it a point to ensure that she is involved in meetings to hear first-hand the situation and assist to find solutions. She always makes herself available and prioritizes tasks.

In this quarter, Chief Probation Officer started to work out of the Chinle PPS office. She scheduled herself to be in the Chinle office on Tuesday and Thursday to make the move to transition back into the office with staff. She requested to be reassigned to the Kayenta PPS officer to work out of since it is closer to her home in Dennehotso. For the last two and half years she telecommuted and enhanced and moved PPS more than ever. Working using virtual means such as Skype for Business had an impact on telecommuting. She was able to meet with staff to strategize, and coordinate projects and trainings. She was able to communicate and use the virtual means to her advantage to lead the department. Respectfully her reassignment was considered and approved to relocate her office to Kayenta where she has been working from since May 2023.

In this quarter, all the PPS staff members have transitioned back into their offices and are operating daily from their respective offices. Probation Officers are meeting their clients in person and working with local resources. Probation Officers are attending in-person court hearings as well. Administrative Order 42-2023 has lifted all restrictions where probation staff expressed that it is much easier to work without the restrictions because working with people in terms of direct services does require observation, listening and finding avenues to progress and work toward successful conclusions to complete their court orders and conditions. Probation Officers are properly operating and functioning today. Those who chose to wear mask may do so; however, sanitizing was a practice before the pandemic for PPS so that practice also continues due to in-person engagement with the population PPS works with.

Chief Probation Officer attended the first scheduled NNIJISP in 2023. The meeting focused on reintroducing members and new members and affiliates to the committee. The suggestion of reacquainting the committee was recommended. The purpose is to reintroduce first, re-evaluate, assess and identify objectives and goals for the project. The recommended summit sounds motivating to restart the project committee.

The Standard Operating Procedures manual committee has revamped the revisions to include recent revisions and progress that probation has generated over the last two years. Probation Services had progressed tremendously in terms of achieving and accomplishing goals to enhance and further improve and develop new avenues within the department. The areas of progress and changes will need to be included in the revisions of the SOP. The assigned Associate Attorney and the PPS Management team are enthused about the revisions and hope to have the revisions completed by the end of this year. The SOP committee has identified to meet bi-weekly.

Chief Probation Officer identified dates for the 2024 Probation Academy training for the overall Probation staff. She will be organizing and making plans with CEO, Dave Rogers-Tribal Public Innovations, LLC. He will be working with Fox Valley-National Criminal Justice Center. Dates and location of the training will be announced early next fiscal year.

In this quarter, Chief Probation Officer also reached out to Chinle Injury Prevention Program, Ms. Charlotte Hadley, Prevention Specialist, who specializes in the area of methods and techniques of trauma relief, debriefing and acupuncture for people who experience burn out. She is specialized in working with adults and minor children. Ms. Hadley has been invited to join us the next staff quarterly meeting at the end of July to introduce herself and the work she performs. She will be sharing techniques on debriefing and learning self-care when burn out sets in. She will also provide information on how she works with people with various trauma issues. This is information that probation officers can use as referrals for clients who are experiencing traumatic situations. She also teams with another individual who specializes in team building skills which also helps staff with teamwork and team building working relationships.

Senior Probation Officer Sheila Begishie in this quarter coordinated and scheduled a training presentation for her western region districts- Tuba City, Kayenta and Chinle. Ms. Berlinda Smith with Tuba City Department of Behavioral and Mental Health Services provided an interesting information sharing presentation related to rehabilitation fraud. She had firsthand information on the current situation of fraud that is occurring where so-called rehabilitation treatment facilities are picking up individuals on Navajo Nation and sending them to Phoenix. Those same facilities are also reaching out to services such as probation to recruit individuals without commitment documentations. Ms. Smith provided information to look out for and stressed to probation officers to utilize REBA (Regional Behavioral Health Services) for adequate processing so we can account for actual placement and services. Going through REBA would be the appropriate placement for clients. Further training will be provided to all NN probation officers.

Currently, Senior Probation Officer and Chief Probation Officer are working diligently to secure a probation office for the Window Rock Probation Services. There are barriers and challenges to seeking an appropriate place and location. On June 7, 2023, they, along with Window Rock probation staff, Window Rock Judicial District staff and the administrative office of the courts staff including Chief Justice Jayne traveled to Sawmill, AZ to conduct a walk through a vacant school building. The facility has space, but concerns were addressed by the probation staff with regards to distance and travel for clients. At the same time, they are in discussions with Peacemaking Coordinator, Dempsey Harvey to see if they can temporarily use the second office space which was the old PPS office until we are able to secure a location. Response and consideration are pending currently due to request for agreement by Peacemaking office. They also have another location to schedule a walk through and meet with individual, Mr. Marco Abeita, Gallup Office. They will be scheduling a walk through soon to look at the BIA building next to the Peacemaking building in Window Rock. Chief Probation Officer is also assisting and working with Court Administrator Jaqueline Francisco with regards to the old DES building located at the intersection of Window Rock. That discussion is also pending response and consideration.

In this quarter, Ms. Melanie Price, IT Specialist, and Chief Probation Officer coordinated and scheduled a virtual training for the probation staff to attend. Ms. Price provided training on the new application Judicial Branch will be using, the Microsoft Teams 365. Her presentation and training were very informative. She went through the Teams application and use of all the capabilities use and purpose. PPS staff appreciated the training.

Because of vacant positions within Probation Services, management team discussed and strategized which involves reassignment of staff to assist their sister districts. Currently, there are no probation officers assigned to the Dilkon District. The position is advertised but there are no applicants identified. Probation Officer Bettina Norton-Aneth PPS, is assisting with cases in Dilkon. She can virtually attend hearings and have clients contact her via telephone and virtual means. When necessary, she can travel out to Dilkon to tend to cases and attend hearings. Window Rock probation officers are also assisting Dilkon probation cases. Request for presentence reports has been reported to be increasing in the Dilkon Court. Therefore, additional assistance is needed. Tuba City PPS currently has one probation officer on full-time duty. Mr. Vinton Yazzie has been taking all cases. One Probation Officer is on extended sick leave and will return to full-time duty in August. Probation Officer Geneva Salt, Kayenta District, was assigned to assist Probation Officer Yazzie on Tuesday and Thursday in Tuba City. Kayenta PPS has one additional probation officer who oversees Kayenta cases. Kayenta PPS also has a vacant position and is currently reviewing applicants for interviews.

At any time, situations and unforeseen circumstances occur within PPS and probation officers from across the miles are always willing to help colleagues and assist at moment's notice to ensure cases and their colleagues are provided the help needed. Chief Probation Officer is pleased to have staff that make the extra commitment to assist another district and their colleagues without complaints and refusing assignments. The response to their temporary assignment is that they are one department, and they should be there to help one another.

Probation Officer Lauren Billy, To'hajilee/Alamo, is assigned to represent PPS at the upcoming Annual Judicial Branch Conference and Staff Development. Probation Officer Billy has been resourceful representing PPS at the committee meeting. She brings updated information to the PPS Round Table meeting providing PPS with tasks and details that are required. She provides updates on deadlines and staff also share with her information and agenda items to take back to the committee meetings. It is also good experience for probation officers to take a role in other duties such as interdepartmental committee meetings. Officer Billy is doing a great job.

OBJECTIVES TO BE ACCOMPLISHED IN THE NEXT QUARTER

To continue finalizing and completing the FY2024 Budget for PPS.

To coordinate and plan for the upcoming Annual Judicial Conference

To coordinate an in-house training session for PPS staff.

To continue to conduct on-site travel to all 13 PPS Districts.

DISTRICT NARRATIVES

All district personnel have reported similar narratives where they are in the transition stages of making in-person report-in by clients by appointment only. They have situated their office to ensure safety precautions are complied with. Thus far, all have reported that the appointment only requirement is working.

All districts probation cases are increasing in terms of court ordered referrals. Courts are referring more cases over for presentence reports and deferred prosecution cases. PPS anticipated to see gradual increase by the end of 3rd quarter in terms of probation cases.

Aneth District

Probation Officer Bettina North continues her assignment from Aneth, Utah across the miles to assist Dilkon District. Officer Norton has been assigned to take care of all Dilkon's criminal cases. In addition to her assigned cases, she noticed in this quarter's data that Dilkon's presentence report has increased tremendously. Again, Officer Norton noted that assisting Dilkon has been an experience and she has learned and taken a different perspective from another District. She welcomed the learning process.

Chinle District

Probation Officer Aldrian Draper reports she scheduled a trip to Sierra Vista, Arizona to take a minor child out of the facility due to neglect of treatment and reports by the minor child that the facility was not feasible for treatment in terms of accommodations were unsanitary, treatment was unorganized and days and weeks went by without any type of group or individual counseling. Probation Officer Draper wanted to visit the facility herself and perhaps address concerns that were raised by the minor child. Upon visiting the facility, Officer Draper confirmed that the minor child was correct and needed to be removed immediately. Officer Draper provided an update status report to the Court that the minor needed to be removed from the facility. Officer Draper and the minor child's parent (mother) traveled to Sierra Vista to retain the minor child to take home. Officer Draper updated the status of the child's case and initiated a new plan for the child with local resources. This situation is only one of a few treatment facilities that have been suspected of inappropriate living conditions for minor children and adults. Navajo PPS has received updates and presentations with regards to treatment fraud and unsuitable treatment facilities. Probation Officers have reevaluated and reassessed their clients that are in treatment facilities.

Kayenta District

Probation Officer Andy Harrison reported that he scheduled two presentations for two Chapters: Dennehotso Chapter and Navajo Mountain Chapter. He reported that he was placed on the agenda to provide information with regards to the full-time in-person client report-ins for Kayenta PPS. He shared information with the communities on the purpose of PPS and how they incorporate direct services with their clients. He also expressed to the community the importance of support while their family/community member is on probation. He also answered questions and commented on some of the concerns or issues, including how they can help by assisting their family/community member in terms of travel, verbal support and overall, their understanding of where their family/community member is struggling with addiction and other underlying concerns. Probation Officer Harrison expressed that it was interesting to hear them out and questions he received. His approach is to attend two Chapter presentation per quarter.

Probation Officer Geneva Salt was assigned to assist Tuba City PPS. Probation Services has one probation officer on extended sick leave from Tuba City. Tuba City has a high caseload, therefore; a decision was made to have Officer Salt assist Tuba City on Tuesday and Thursdays. She is initially situated in Kayenta on Monday, Wednesday, and Fridays in Kayenta. Currently, the collaboration between the two districts is working out.

Shiprock District

Probation Officer Lucy Yesslith reported in this quarter that she does not rely on treatment facilities when she obtained many training hours to work with clients. Thus far, Officer Yesslith is collaborating with Capacity Builders, a Native oriented resource funded by grants, to be a resource for direct services. Officer Yesslith reached out to Capacity Builders and is currently working with them, which has resulted in successful cases. Officer Yesslith was able to work one-on-one with clients to help identify objectives and accomplish their goals. She expressed witnessing positive results with her own initiative has been awarding.

Tuba City

Probation Officer Vinton Yazzie reports a court ordered situation where he was ordered to pick a minor child that has been absconding from treatment facilities, and correction. He requested for Probation Officer Geneva Salt to assist in transporting the minor child back from Las Vegas, Nevada. Probation Officers along with the minor child's grandmother traveled to Las Vegas to pick up the minor child from corrections custody. Clark County correction facility held the minor child for Navajo Nation to pick up and transport back to Tuba City. Once the child was retained by the Navajo Nation, the child was then released into the custody of Navajo Nation Juvenile Correction Facility and Crownpoint, New Mexico. Probation Officer will continue to monitor the minor child with her family and under the Court's order and conditions.

Probation Services has collaborated more and more with neighboring outside jurisdiction (State, County and Federal) counter partners. We appreciate the working relationship NNPPS has established and appreciate the willingness to work with NNPPS to ensure collaboration, and networking for the benefit of assisting and working with counter partners. We continue to work with our neighboring partners.

The Budget and Finance Committee approved for Fiscal Year (FY) 2023 NNIJISP amount of $375,000. NNIJISP has a budget for internet fees, maintenance and support contract, and professional training only, and cannot purchase equipment for NNIJISP partners. The balance is $204,380.09 as of July 11, 2023.

Current tracking and monitoring of active contracts: Professional Service Contracts for Matrix Imaging is active and does not need to be renewed until September 30, 2023. Cellular One of North East Arizona, Pine Technologies LLC., and Sacred Winds Communications have been submitted through the Navajo Nation 164 Review and Approval process and Pine Technologies LLC has been approved for $138,800. Cellular One Professional Service was deemed insufficient, because it has to be resubmitted under the new name, Smith Bagley.

NNIJISP leadership and the Law and Order Committee (LOC) has gained interest in the use of the partners' case management system and discussed the use in technology and continued to support NNIJISP. The main LOC focus is on data sharing concerns among partners and are currently reviewing what data and demographics can be viewed and shared. There is data that a few NNIJISP Partners do not agree to share due to laws and confidentiality legality. The topic of data sharing is an ongoing process and will take further evaluation and agreement among the justice community. Another topic that is coming to light is addressing case files/case data flow for a more effective and efficient way to move court cases forward. Due to the pandemic the closing of case files has increased and partners are working to decrease the active caseloads. Continued work sessions of JustWare's ability to customize reports enlightened NNIJISP partners to discussion options on moving forward for JustWare users. NNIJISP partners have been informed of the importance when inputting data for reporting purposes.

H. Window Rock Judicial District

ACCOMPLISHMENT OF OBJECTIVES:

The Window Rock Judicial District continues taking preventative measures and addressing all cases on the Court's docket. The Court continues to address hearings telephonically with the exceptions of parties that request in-person hearings. The court is preparing for a criminal jury trial in November 2023.

Each day our focus continues with the Court's dockets on Children's, Civil, Family Civil, Criminal, Civil Traffic Hearings, and Domestic Violence proceedings due to daily filings and outstanding bench warrants. Court documents are received in person or by drop-box, postal mail, electronic, and fax. All staff members prepare themselves to answer telephone calls, process fines and fee payments including processing postal mail, process filings, and clerk ALL schedule hearings. Our current staffing has exemplary work performances and their desires to complete their task and have set outstanding measures to help in closing Court Continuances and Court Dismissals. They have also gained the responsibility of closing most traffic citations and have sent out Civil Traffic Judgments.

On April 4, 2023, the Supreme Court, Administrative Office of the Courts, Window Rock Courts, Peacemaking Program, Judicial Conduct Commission planned Justice Day but was cancelled due to the weather conditions. The event was rescheduled for May 2, 2023, from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. The turnout was successful with 40 people who came to the booth with Judge Begay and Lorenzo Curley, Staff Attorney, answering questions on Pro Se information and the process for Court documents. Judge Begay, Loritta Largo and Jacqueline Francisco all donated gifts for door prizes. A total of 178 people came to Justice Day and for lunch; AOC staff along with volunteers provided Subway box lunches to our guests who attended.

B. ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSE:

a. WRJD and HR Department continue to work with staff regarding possible or actual COVID-19 exposures. In April, we had one staff exposure resulting in positive COVID-19 cases have occurred onsite at the facility. However, out of an abundance of caution, even if there is possible exposure to our staff and facilities, the HR Office works with the district/program leadership, the Health & Safety Advisor, and the COOP Coordinator on timeframes for closing court facilities if necessary, arranging with other Courts to continue operating for a temporarily closed Court if needed, and rearranging staff as necessary. If there is possible exposure to Staff, HR also conducts contact tracing.

Honorable Malcolm Begay, Honorable Victor Clyde, and Judicial Hearing Officer Loritta Largo preside and hear all Window Rock Judicial Family and District Court cases.

Judge Malcolm Begay administers Oaths to various personnel such as the Process Servers, Correction Officers, Internal Affairs personnel, Animal Control Officers, Criminal Investigators and Navajo Nation/State Police Officers for annual and cross-deputations via Skype. On April 7, 2023, Judge Begay administered the Oath of Office for Window Rock Police District. This included Police Officers, Criminal Investigators, Police Sergeants for WRPD. There was a total of 26 commissioned Officers.

The Staff Attorney position has become vacant as of June 2, 2023. Mr. Lorenzo Curley has resigned from his position. He has concentrated on backlogged cases created during the public health emergency. Backlogged cases are continuous and efforts to obtain assistance for the Staff Attorney are ongoing.

To further address the case backlog, Window Rock Judicial District will seek funding from the FY' 23 General Funds Personnel Lapse funds to hire a Judicial Clerk and interns to assist with drafting Orders for the backlog. To date, there are no further applicants.

WRJD Modular Building temporary facility has become a project in securing a Project Manager. Administrative Office of the Courts continue to work with Community Development for this process. Administrative Office of the Courts Senior Budget Analyst has been working to update the APRA budget to utilize that funding to pay for the project management. As of June 13, 2023, Administrative Office of the Courts and Division of Community Development have met and finalizing the contracts with the project management/construction management companies. WRJD publicly thanks the ongoing efforts to seek a court building for WRJD: Honorable Malcolm Begay, Honorable Victor Clyde, Chief Justice JoAnn Jayne; Cherie Espinoza, Attorney; Karen Francis and Gwendolyn Keedo, Senior Budget Analyst.

WRJD was utilizing the Old Supreme Court to hold telephonic hearings. Unfortunately, that came to a halt due to the notice sent by Austin Yazzie, Program Supervisor I with Navajo Nation Occupational Safety and Health Administration. He stated on a May 11, 2023, email that vendor, All Nations Environmental Inc. completed a building sample collection and processed those collections with a licensed laboratory to determine the percentage of hazardous materials and the identification name of the hazard materials. On June 6, 2023, NNOSHA received the report of EXPOSURE: Results and samples of Asbestos, Lead and Mold. Bulk asbestos analysis provides the floor mastic are reading chrysotile at 3% - 5% and Lead report at 0.046 on the wall paint and exterior stucco. Immediately, WRJD staff were informed not to enter the building. The recordings have been removed and relocated to AOC. Other items need to be removed but we have absolutely no space for relocation.

On June 6, 2023, WRJD was notified to attend a meeting and site review to relocate Window Rock Judicial District to the Sawmill Primary School. Staff from AOC IT, Probation and Parole, Chief Justice JoAnn Jayne, Karen Francis, Benita Jay with WR School District were all in attendance. WRJD holds a lot of confidential files for customers, and we don't think this will solidify the temporary relocation for WRJD staff. In the meantime, we received information that Department of Economic Security building became available. We quickly rushed to that appointment and seeking information with Albert Kee, Property Manager with HTE Reality. They requested for a Letter of Interest and for our contact information. This building is 5000 square feet and we also included Probation and Parole as our neighbors to occupy the former DES building. We continue to follow through with HTE Reality and are hopeful for a positive outcome for WRJD. Other locations we tried were Navajo Land Department – they don't have room availability due to their vacant positions advertised for possible applicants. The old Behavioral Health in Ft. Defiance is scheduled for mold remediation and demolition.

Judge Malcolm Begay attended and participated with COOP daily updates; the status of operations; Communications: Teleconference, Email, and PPE; supplies: Job reassignments as necessary.

On a monthly basis, Jacqueline Francisco ensures that all WRJD bank deposits were successfully recorded and closed by the Cashier's Office. The amount deposited were:

- April Total Amount for Court and Traffic Fines: $6,229.20
- May Total Amount for Court and Traffic Fines: $12,457.05
- June Total Amount for Court and Traffic Fines: $14,871.75

The Acting Court Administrator attended two Court Administrator meetings held on April 27, 2023 and June 22, 2023. Also, Jacqueline Francisco attended the following:

- April 3, 2023 – Office Technician Meeting
- April 14, 2023 – Meeting on WRJD Modular Building
- April 27, 2023 – Court Administrator Meeting
- May 12, 2023 – Jury Payments on General Claims Form
- May 24, 2023 – COOP Meeting at 3pm
- May 31, 2023 – Office Technician Meeting
- June 22, 2023 – Court Administrator Meeting
- June 23, 2023 – Meeting with Crownpoint Judicial District for temporary relocation site for WR Judicial District
- June 30, 2023 – Office Technician Meeting

Window Rock Court's email totaled 1,089. This number represents inquiries for Court hearings, case status, requiring forms, and services. Additional services were provided to individuals calling the Court.

There were 283 Family Court hearings and 473 District Court hearings for this Quarter. Orders for these hearings contribute to the current backlogged WRJD cases.

The Third Quarter had 89 document requests made and 65 requests completed. It should be noted that while the completed requests were limited, it can be attributed to the fact that most records are archived and need to be researched. This process is time-consuming and challenging due to the limited number of court staff assigned to our District goals.

Navajo Nation Budget: The work session was postponed from June 29, 2023, until further notice.

The Window Rock Judicial District has fully opened the court's front desk services for the public. The WRJD has allowed limited access to in-person services to the public and we are open daily from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. including lunch hour from with the assignment of staff to assist during the lunch hour.

Court Schedule: We have all our staff in the building daily to provide services to the public and process court cases. Judge Malcolm Begay and Judge Clyde have been presiding and hearing all cases. WRJD is now planning and scheduling for the calendar year 2023 into 2024.

Quarterly Judicial Conference: The judges attended the Quarterly Judicial conference via teleconference. The scheduled Judicial Conference was held on June 29, 2023, and both Judge Begay and Judge Clyde were in attendance.

Vacant Positions: The Window Rock Judicial District has six vacant positions: one Staff Attorney, one Court Administrator, one Judicial Hearing Officer and three District Court Clerks. The Human Resource Department with Judicial Branch continues to advertise the positions. The Bailiff position will be advertised as open until filled.

Training: The Window Rock District Court Staff attended the following:

- Fundamental Laws on May 31, 2023 at Twin Arrows – Judge Clyde attended.
- NNBA Annual Conference held on June 7-9, 2023 – Judge Begay and Judge Clyde attended.
- Navajo Police Department on “Services and Goods Contracts” held on June 7-8, 2023. Three staff attended this training.
- Navajo Police Department on “Budgeting to Operations” held on June 15-16, 2023 in Farmington. Three staff attended this training.
- Annual Social Work and Human Services Symposium in Flagstaff held on June 29, 2023 – Judge Clyde attended and provided a presentation.

3. OBJECTIVES TO BE ACCOMPLISHED:

A. The Window Rock District's current facility housing is temporarily at the Administrative Office of the Courts. The WRJD/PPS and NEZ/FCI will continue to meet via zoom to discuss the contract and project summary and start with construction in phases using the Public Safety funds. The project summary indicates the contractor, NEZ/FCI Co., will commence with mobilization in FY 2023 and delivery/set up of the modular building in 2023. We are very hopeful that we will have a building of our own real soon. At this point, we are being told Administrative Office of the Courts needs more office space for their growing personnel. WRJD don't have the necessary office space to hold hearings for the courts too. We are in a very unsuitable situation and Window Rock Court is the central location where the public come to file court documents, pay their traffic fines and request for other court requests. Window Rock Courts definitely needs their own building as soon as possible. Thank you.

L. Alamo/Tóhajiilee Judicial District

Accomplishment of objectives set the previous quarter

Goal: Participate and assist with the New Mexico Administrative Office of the Courts training of the Indian Family Protection Act.

New Mexico Administrative Office of the Courts Training on the “Indian Family Protection Act”

Court Administrator Regina Begay Roanhorse facilitated a “talking circle” with New Mexico state judges at the Indian Family Protection Act training at the Pueblo of Isleta on April 25, 2023. There were about 10 talking circles facilitated by Native Americans the day before the law was presented to the Judges. The New Mexico Indian Family Protection Act” is the state’s answer to the legal challenge that the federal Indian Child Welfare Act “ICWA” should be overturned on the argument that the federal government can’t require state to adopt or enforce federal law, as well as to other arguments. The New Mexico Indian Family Protection Act is the states answer to that challenge. It sets a gold standard for placement of Indian Children involved in foster care placements.

The training on the law the following day, April 26, 2023, was very informative for state judges. The New Mexico IFPA puts to rest the challenge that the federal government regulates child-welfare proceedings in state courts in the Haaland v. Brackeen case because New Mexico now has in its law the same standards ICWA requires when placing an Indian child in foster placement, the proceedings regarding termination of parental rights, and the acknowledgement that Native American children in New Mexico will now have state law protecting their placements with Native American families as a first tiered effort. Regardless of what happened with the Brackeen case, the NM IFPA is the rule of law as of March 2023. Applause needs to go to tribal leaders and tribal advocates in the Pueblos of New Mexico who fought for this New Mexico statute.

M. Other Significant Accomplishments

Alamo Court Administrator

Olivia Nelson is the new Court Administrator for the Alamo Judicial District since June 12, 2023. She will be involved with learning court processes, supervision of court staff and the management of all cases for the district. Court Administrator Olivia Nelson has introduced herself to the Alamo Navajo Chapter Officials and has requested updates and invites to virtual meetings as scheduled and will plan to attend in person as it is starting to open their doors for in-person meetings. The next regular Chapter meeting is scheduled on July 17, 2023.

Navajo Judicial Branch Veterans Justice Outreach project

The Navajo Nation received an award for $750,000 through a USDOJ Indian Alcohol Grant in 2018 for an innovative peer support enhancement project, undoubtedly the only one of its kind in Indian Country. The funds remain unspent for five (5) years because of the Office of Inspector General findings regarding other federal grants money spent by the Navajo Nation, remain in a corrective action mode. Until those corrective actions are fixed, the “Veterans Justice Outreach Project” remains “frozen.” The only staff trying to do training under the grant for reporting purposes is the Court Administrator Regina Begay Roanhorse for the To’Hajiilee Judicial District.

Court Administrator Regina Begay Roanhorse continues to provide technical assistance to other tribes, programs, and off reservation courts on how to provide culturally appropriate services to Native American veterans through treatment courts. The Peer Support project was part of the 2013 USDOJ funded grant that create a program for Veterans Treatment courts.

On April 7, 2023, April 27, 2023, and May 9, 2023, Court Administrator Regina Begay Roanhorse met online with retired Chief Justice Lawton Nuss and Retired Colonel Reyes, with one meeting including Professor Huskey from the University of Arizona law school. The purpose of the meeting was to address the creation of more Veterans Treatment Courts for Native American Veterans in tribal courts. Ms. Roanhorse provided a presentation of the logic model created by the coordinators for the courts in 2013-2015.

It appears that the Law and Order Committee for the Navajo Nation is interested in models that address justice involved individuals and rehabilitation or treatment. Ms. Roanhorse has been doing the work with coordinators from grants ($2.0 million approx.) over 13 years and will be available if they want to learn more about how the 10 key components of a drug court (Healing to Wellness Court) can be effective in the Navajo Nation. A “process evaluation” was done of efforts that includes recommendations specifically pertaining to Navajo Nation laws and rules (with entry points, community-based treatment, and mental health services).

National American Indian Court Judges Association’s (NAIJCA) Presentation regarding Tribal Healing to Wellness court, Veterans Programs, and the Veterans Roundtable

On May 24, 2023, Court Administrator Regina Roanhorse presented the Navajo Nation’s Veterans Justice Outreach project as part of the Tribal Law and Policy Institute’s Treatment Month presentations online. She worked with consultant Ray Daw, who developed a veterans wellness program. She also worked with Professor Andrea Sielestad, from the University of Ohio, to provide important information on how to engage veterans’ groups and to work on the complicated legal access issues in the Navajo Nation, where there are huge “legal deserts”.

See Video at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zphO698PrRY>)

Later, on June 22, 2023, and June 23, 2023, Court Administrator Regina Roanhorse participated in the National American Indian Court Judges Association (NAICJA) “Veteran’s roundtable” at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center in Albuquerque, New Mexico. A select number of veterans from Indian Country were invited to provide their experiences and opinions on how to address accessing legal services for veterans. This includes the legal representation at the Veterans Administration’s administrative tribunals that reverse bad discharges due to PTSD so that veterans can apply for benefits at the VA and VHA (Veteran’s Health Administration). The data that NAICJA collected is unprecedented. A presentation of the medical legal model in California was astounding and could be applied in Indian Country, where lawyers work with doctors to provide wrap around services for veterans. This is part of the veteran’s justice outreach peer project logic model. Despite the lack of funding for a coordinator, Ms. Roanhorse has been blessed to have the NAIJCA and their consultants to help with developing access to services for veterans.

COVID – 19 DEBRIEFING

On April 13, 2023, the Judicial Branch conducted a “debriefing” of the Continuity of Operations Plan with trial court leadership. There were deep emotions about the darkest time within this generation for the Judicial Branch. The trial courts remained open during that time and had to support front line workers managing court cases and processing Orders of the courts for the stability of the community. Some saw the death of community leaders and people through the lens of guardianships, probates and other cases filed. There was much unprocessed trauma for all involved. Court Administrator Regina Roanhorse remembers the young adult, who is the eldest of five children, who had to file a guardianship because the sole caretaker was sick with COVID and eventually died. Listening to the testimony of these types of cases was a very sad part of the court history, but the courts had to remain open. Some courts didn't have enough supplies at the beginning of the pandemic. Regina Roanhorse remembers hearing from one of her bailiffs that the helicopters in Alamo had to fly around to airlift community people one by one. The helicopter pad is located near the court. The debriefing was an important opportunity for everyone to tell their stories. For Alamo and To'Hajiilee Judicial Districts, the court clerks, bailiffs, custodians all deserve special recognition for all the work they did at the court building and while shelter in place. We all became a better team as a result. We all learned about terms like, "essential workers", "virtual hearings", telecommute, taking temperatures and K95 masks. The Emergency Public Health pandemic was declared over in May 2023. The last COVID 19 exposure at To'Hajiilee Court was April 14, 2023, when a Court Clerk became ill from COVID 19. In June 2023, the Court Administrator tested positive for COVID 19 after attending a maskless event at the Navajo Nation Bar Association Conference in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The virus will still be an issue for the court staff.

Motor Vehicle Review Board: To'Hajiilee Tribal vehicles

On May 10, 2023, Court Administrator did a presentation before the Motor Vehicle Review Board about the high mileage vehicles. The purpose of the presentation was to request that Navajo Nation Fleet give Judges and court staff first consideration for the purchase of new tribal vehicles. The two To'Hajiilee vehicles have over 140,000 and 135,000 miles. The request was granted.

Oath of Office

Judge William Platero gave the oath of office to criminal investigators on April 21, 2023.

Law and Order Committee

Court administrator Regina Begay Roanhorse attended legislative committee meetings for Law and Order Committee or Budget and Finance committee on: 5/4/23; 6/20/23.

To'Hajiilee Chapter

Court Administrator Regina Begay Roanhorse continues to provide updates to the To'Hajiilee Chapter via a google meet during planning and regular chapter meetings. She gave updates to the community on: 4/18/2023; 5/2/2023; 5/17/2023; 6/6/2023.

Alamo Document Technician – Archiving of Cases

The Alamo Judicial District does not have a document technician; however, Alamo Court Clerk Miranda Apachito continues to archive cases. As she continues to archive, she is also training and mentoring the new court clerk Marlene Whitefeather to learn archiving cases as we continue to have Miranda create folders in JustWare and onto the archiving database.

3. Objectives to be accomplished in the next quarter

Provide training to Court Administrators in Crownpoint and Alamo on court processes, financials, and case management online.
