Chinle Agency Council Meeting

November 4, 2023, Saturday (in-person and hybrid)

Round Rock Chapter House at 9 AM

Yáát'éeéh. Good Wednesday morning Chinle Agency Council members, chapter officials, community representatives, council delegates, employees, departments, and guests. After many inquiries about the meeting originally set for October 21st, Saturday, the CAC officials decided to reschedule the meeting due to Western Navajo Fair and Parade and other functions. We apologize for any inconvenience.

We look forward to convening as t'áá lá'í niidlíígo (working as one) to plan, build, and find solutions in our communities. Due to the complexities of governing our agency, there will be a time schedule, an agenda, roll call, presentations, discussion, voting to conduct the meeting. For future quarterly meetings, we will ask for prepared resolutions, presentations, electronic or paper handouts ahead of time. Many of our leaders are fluent in Navajo and prefer to address the audience in the language, face-to-face. At the same time, there are leaders proficient in modern communication devices. We encourage everyone to learn one or two new methods including the usage and participation in hybrid virtual meetings, if necessary.

T'áá doole'é bee chodqo'ijł yáadaat'éehígíí doo bee dzildzid da. You cannot fear any skill that will benefit everyone in a positive way. Have a great October month.
